ORDER DENYING PROPOSED DISCOVERY PLAN AND SCHEDULING ORDER (Docket No. 116)

Even though the parties request a discovery period in excess of 180 days, Docket No. 116, at 4, the proposed DPSO does not state on its face “SPECIAL SCHEDULING REVIEW REQUESTED.”

1 See id., at 1.¹ Moreover, the parties provide no reasons in support of their request for a discovery period
 2 in excess of 180 days. See id. The parties also fail to properly measure the discovery period as required
 3 by Local Rule 26-1(e), having proposed nine months of discovery with a cutoff date of March 6, 2015,
 4 apparently calculated using June 6, 2014, as the initial measuring date. Docket No. 116, at 4. The 5 parties provide no reason why they would calculate from June 6, 2014.

6 Finally, in its Order of June 2, 2014, the Court ordered that all “Plaintiffs in this case ... must 7 submit a joint proposed discovery plan[.]” Docket No. 114, at 3. Despite this clear instruction, only 8 pro se Plaintiff Christine R. Johnson signed the parties’ proposed DPSO. See Docket No. 116, at 5. In 9 its Order of June 2, 2014, the Court cautioned Plaintiff Christine R. Johnson that she “is not an attorney 10 and, as such, may not represent anyone other than herself in the instant case.” Docket No. 114, at 1.
 11 The additional Plaintiffs must therefore join in the submission of any proposed DPSO, and affix their 12 signatures thereto.

13 The Court hereby ORDERS all Plaintiffs in this case and all Defendants who are not subject to 14 the scheduling order (Docket No. 20) and extension (Docket No. 36) to submit a joint proposed 15 Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order in full compliance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and 16 the Local Rules of this Court, no later than June 17, 2014.

17 IT IS SO ORDERED.

18 DATED this 10th day of June, 2014.

 25 In addition, Local Rule 26-1(e)(7) requires that all “discovery plans shall include on the last page
 26 thereof the words ‘IT IS SO ORDERED’ with a date and signature block for the judge in the manner set 27 forth in LR 6-2.” The parties did not comply with this rule in their proposed DPSO. See Docket No.
 28 116, at 6. The parties also attach an “Affirmation Pursuant to NRS 239B.030,” a document that is not required by either the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or the Local Rules of this Court. See id., at 9.
